

Department of Management Services
2017-2018 Regulatory Plan

Requirements of s. 120.74(1)(a), F.S.:
Division	Law enacted during the previous 12 months which creates or modifies the duties or authority of the agency.	Must the agency adopt rules to implement the law? If the answer is no, provide a concise explanation as to why the law may be implemented without rulemaking.	If the agency must adopt rules to implement the law, has a notice of rule development been published in the Florida Administrative Register?	The date by which the agency expects to publish the notice of proposed rule.
N/A	Section 119.011, Florida Statutes	No. These public records requirements are sufficiently clear without further rulemaking, and no authority for rulemaking is granted to the agency.	N/A	N/A
N/A	Section 119.071, Florida Statutes	No. These public records requirements are sufficiently clear without further rulemaking and no authority for rulemaking is granted to the agency.	N/A	N/A
N/A	Section 119.0714, Florida Statutes	No. These public records requirements are sufficiently clear without further rulemaking, and no authority for rulemaking is granted to the agency.	N/A	N/A
N/A	Section 397.6760, Florida Statutes	No. The law does not specify powers or duties that must be implemented through rulemaking, and no authority for rulemaking is granted to the agency.	N/A	N/A

N/A	Section 252.3655, Florida Statutes	No. The agency's participation in this workgroup does not present a duty or authority which must be implemented through rulemaking. No additional interpretation or procedures are required, and no rulemaking authority is granted to DMS.	N/A	N/A
DSGI	Section 110.12315, Florida Statutes	No. This section does not require any further interpretation or procedure, and no requirement for rulemaking was created.	N/A	N/A
DSGI	Section 110.12301, Florida Statutes	No. This statute sets forth a requirement to procure and contract with a vendor, a public records exemption, and audit details; no additional procedures or statements are required for interpretation or implementation of these requirements.	N/A	N/A
DSGI	Section 110.12303, Florida Statutes	No. This statute addresses matters of contract; no additional procedures or statements are required for implementation of these requirements.	N/A	N/A
DSGI	Section 110.12304, Florida Statutes	No. Law requires the department to procure services for a benefit consultant, and no rulemaking is necessary to implement this provision.	N/A	N/A

DSGI	Section 110.123(3)(f), Florida Statutes	No. The provision is not yet effective, so additional rules are not needed at this time.	N/A	N/A
DSGI	Section 110.123(3)(h)8., Florida Statutes	No. Although the law modifies what benefits the Division may offer, it does not mandate the Division provide additional benefits. The Division does not anticipate offering new benefits prior to April 1, 2018.	N/A	N/A
HRM	Section 110.2037(5), Florida Statutes	No. The agency's authority for rulemaking has been removed, and no rules were previously adopted.	N/A	N/A
HRM	Section 447.403, Florida Statutes	No. The modification in the timing for notifying the legislature of unresolved collective bargaining issues is sufficiently set forth in statute for implementation without rulemaking.	N/A	N/A
HRM	Section 20.055, Florida Statutes	No. This prohibition is a contract matter, and no further procedures or statements are required for interpretation or implementation.	N/A	N/A
HRM	Section 252.55, Florida Statutes	No. No further procedures or statements are required for interpretation or implementation of these requirements and restrictions.	N/A	N/A

HRM	Chapter 2017-125, Laws of Florida	No. These issues in collective bargaining do not require any further interpretation or procedure, and no rulemaking authority is granted to the agency.	N/A	N/A
REDM	Section 255.0992, Florida Statutes	No. No further procedures or statements are required for interpretation or implementation of these requirements and restrictions, and no requirement for rulemaking was created.	N/A	N/A
