Keith Wold
Private Attorney
Appointed by Governor DeSantis

Keith Wold, of Boca Raton, is an attorney and private investor. He has been a member of the Florida Bar since 1980 and the New York Bar since 1982. He has practiced maritime law and was involved in the founding of the Broward County Environmental Coalition and the Tampa Bay Environmental Coalition.

He earned his bachelor’s degree in geology from the University of Arizona, his juris doctorate from Nova Southeastern University and his master’s of law in maritime law from the University of Miami.